

Auto Body Technician Apprentice

Auto Body Technician Apprentice

Location: RJ's Auto

Employee Type: Fulltime

Industry: Collision Repair

Experience: 1 to 3+ Years

Description:

Growing collision repair company in Tamuning, Guam is searching for an experienced technician helper to perform body work, repair dents, frame work, panel replacement, etc. We service a wide variety of vehicles including utility vehicles, conversion vans as well as foreign and domestic vehicles and much more. This is an excellent position for a person with an upbeat, positive, can do attitude.

Qualifications:

High School Diploma or Equivalent. Some training and Skills. Positive Attitude. Willing to learn.

Duties and Responsibilities: (Assist Body Technicians in all areas)

Remove and reinstall body parts as needed
Realign frame rails and use frame machine with measuring equipment
Keep an organized and clean work area
Suspension work
Repair Dents
Replace Panels
Perform other duties as assigned

Job Requirements:

Must provide own tools (Company will provide special tools)
Long periods of standing, kneeling and bending
Available to work overtime during times of heavy work volume
Ability to lift up to 100 pounds
Valid driver's license
Reliable transportation to and from work
Ability to follow written and verbal instructions
Able to function in a fast paced environment

Benefits:

This position is for long-term employment. Benefits include competitive pay based on experience, and Medical Insurance.

Application Requirements:

Please email your resume to jsardoma_rjsauto@guam.net

Resume must be attached as an Adobe (.pdf) or Microsoft Word (.doc) document

(Optional) Include any additional information related to this position, including a list of professional references, job history, or a professional letter of reference.