END PLASTIC POLLUTION

GCC 2018 EARTH MONTH EVENTS

LIGHTS OUT!
Day-lighting Hour
APRIL 2 (Monday)
2- 3 PM
Guam Community College

Kick off Earth Month by participating in an hour-long event of turning off your lights, also known as Earth Hour and utilizing natural daylight. Around the globe, millions of people, businesses, and landmarks set aside an hour to switch off their lights and make noise for climate change action.

Reusable Cup Week
April 2 – April 6

Port of Mocha will be giving a 25 cents discount to customers who bring and use their reusable cup at any of their locations. This has the potential to minimize plastic waste dramatically. But don't stop there; keep using your reusable cups as it can help minimize plastic waste by hundreds if not thousands of pounds each year.

Clean Our House
APRIL 13 (Friday)
4-5 PM
GCC Campus-Wide

Service Learning Hours accepted. Department Chairs please let the Sustainability Office know if you would like to get involved with this initiative. (Pick up trash / Prepare Plastic Bottles for Transport)

Spring Flower Sale
APRIL 20 (Friday)
3-5 PM
Near the MPA

The GCC EcoWarriors will be selling beautiful spring flowers! Add some color and beauty at your home with these natural plants.

The Economics of Happiness
(with ASL interpretation) will be shown by the Education Department.
APRIL 25 (Wednesday)
GCC Student Center Training Room 5108
12-1:20 PM

Produce Sale
APRIL 25 (Wednesday)
2-6 PM
Student Center Stage Area

GCC Farmers Market- Local produce will be for sale. Please support your local farmers and the GCC EcoWarriors.

Don't forget to check out the awesome Earth Month display at the Learning Resource Center starting in April. LRC encourages all GCC students and employees to read, learn, and become involved in preserving our environment, our beautiful island of Guam!
